JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6.

This is an action for infringement of a United States patent arising under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, and 284-285, among others. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action set forth herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a) because this action arises under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

7.

Venue is proper in this judicial district and division pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1391(b) and (c) and 1400(b) in that, upon information and belief, Defendant has retail locations within this district, Defendant routinely does business within this district, Defendant has committed acts of infringement within this district, and Defendant continues to commit acts of infringement within this district.

8.

Upon information and belief, Defendant is subject to this Court's specific and general personal jurisdiction pursuant to due process and/or the Texas Long Arm Statute, due at least to Defendant's substantial business in this State and judicial district, including: (i) at least a portion of the infringements alleged herein; and/or (ii) regularly doing or soliciting business, engaging in other persistent courses of conduct, and/or deriving substantial revenue from goods and services provided to individuals in Texas and in this district.

WORDLOGIC'S ASSERTED PATENT

9.

On March 16, 2010, U.S. Patent Number 7,681,124 ("the '124 Patent") titled DATA ENTRY FOR PERSONAL COMPUTING DEVICES, was issued to Harold David Gunn and John Chapman. A true and correct copy of the '124 Patent is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

10.

All rights, title, and interest in the '124 Patent have been assigned to WordLogic and 602531 British Columbia Ltd. WordLogic has been the sole owner of the '124 Patent since its issuance.

11.

The '124 Patent is generally directed towards methods and systems for computer assisted data entry and text generation for input fields utilizing computing devices.

INTRODUCTION

12.

WordLogic is a global leader and innovator in the field of predictive text input technology.

13.

WordLogic has been developing predictive text input technology since the late 1990's. WordLogic's technology has been developed, utilized and licensed for use on a wide variety of devices and applications including PC's, smart phones, tablets, websites, media players, navigational systems, and gaming consoles.

14.

WordLogic's technology has been recognized as a leader in the field predictive keyboard applications by various news outlets including Market Wired™ and NBC™.

15.

WordLogic's technology incorporates technology such as proprietary gesturing and WordChunking™ features to increase the productivity and effort needed to accurately input text.

16.

WordLogic's predictive keyboard application known as iKnowU® is a contextually aware predictive keyboard that makes typing easier, faster, and more accurate for mobile users. The application predicts what the user is about to type and helps complete the sentence with reduced effort. The application predicts the next most likely letters, words and phrases, which significantly reduces the number of keystrokes needed to complete the text.

COUNT I

DIRECT INFRINGEMENT OF THE '124 PATENT
PURSUANT TO 35 U.S.C. § 271(a)

17.

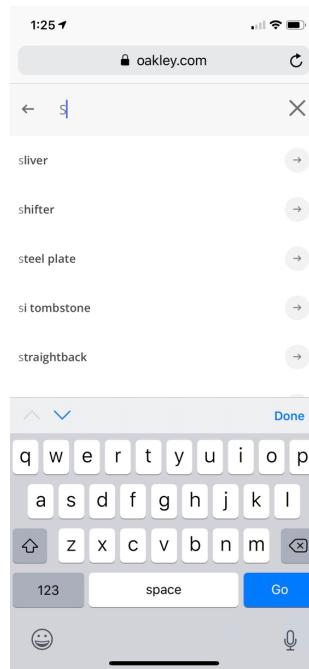

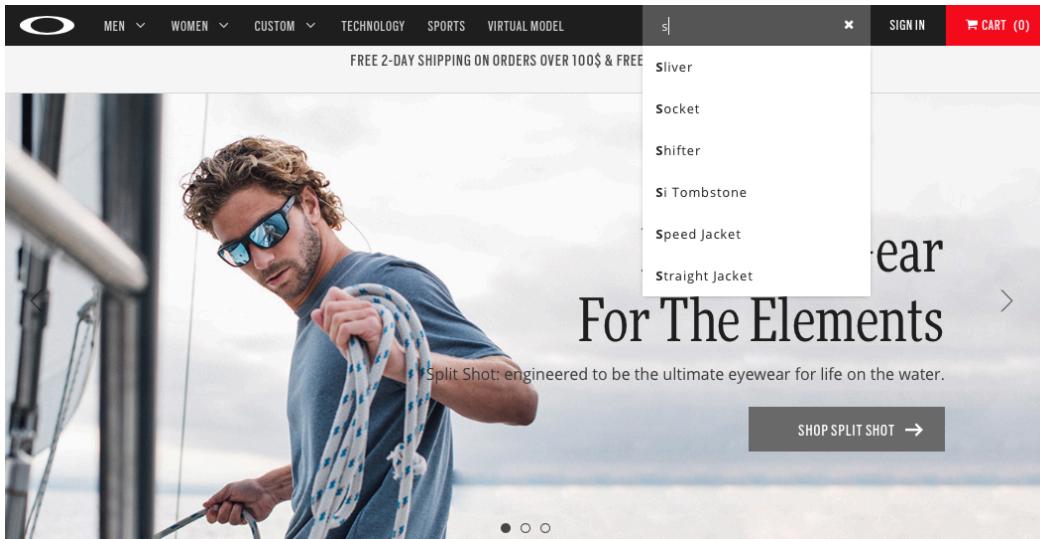

Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations of Paragraphs 1-16.

18.

Defendant has directly infringed and continues to directly infringe at least one or more claims of the '124 Patent, through, among other activities, making, using, and incorporating into Defendant's website, keyboard predictive text with generated predictive text fields.

19.

The Defendant's website receives and displays a partial text entry via a digital keyboard displayed as a graphical user interface, the partial text entry comprising receiving at least part of the partial text entry via the keyboard, the partial text entry comprising at least a first character.

20.

The Defendant's website, in response to receipt of the first character of the partial text entry, obtaining a plurality of completion candidates from among a group of completion candidates, wherein each of the plurality of completion candidates includes a portion matching the partial text entry.

21.

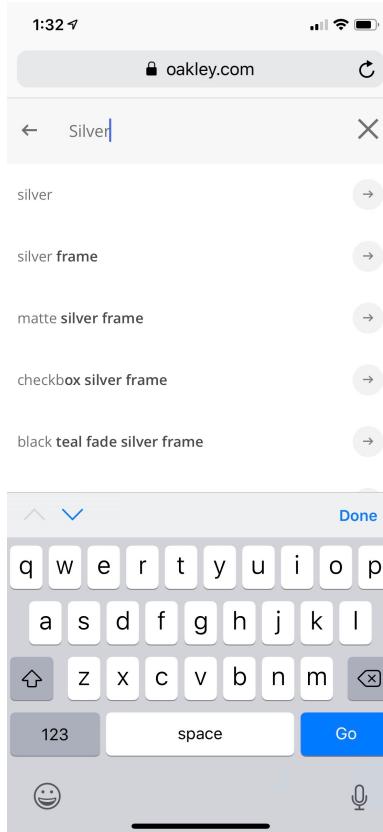

The Defendant's website displays the plurality of completion candidates in a search list within a graphical user interface.

22.

The Defendant's website detects user input corresponding to selection of a particular completion candidate from among the plurality of completion candidates displayed in the search list and modifies the display of the partial text entry to correspond to the particular completion candidate selected from among the plurality of completion candidates at least while the particular completion candidate remains selected.

23.

The Defendant's website also detects modification of the partial text entry by the user via the keyboard and obtains and displays in the search list a modified plurality of completion candidates from among the group of completion candidates, if the partial text entry is modified via the keyboard, wherein each of the modified plurality of completion candidates includes a portion matching the partial text entry.

24.

The Defendant's website also obtains and displays in the search list a further modified plurality of completion candidates from among the group of completion candidates, if a completion candidate is accepted via the search list from the modified plurality of completion candidates, wherein each of the further modified plurality of completion candidates includes a portion matching the accepted completion candidate.

INDIRECT INFRINGEMENT OF THE '124 PATENT
PURSUANT TO 35 U.S.C. § 271(b)

25.

Plaintiffs' repeat, reallege, and incorporate by reference, as if fully set forth herein, the allegations of the preceding paragraphs, as set forth above.

26.

In addition to directly infringing the '124 Patent, Defendant has indirectly infringed the '124 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by instructing, directing and/or requiring others, including customers, purchasers, users and developers, to perform one or more of the steps of the method claims, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, of the '124 Patent, where all the steps of the method claims are performed by either the Defendant, its customers, purchasers, users, and developers, or some combination thereof. Defendant knew, or was willfully blind to the fact that it was inducing others, including customers, purchasers, users, and developers, to infringe by practicing, either themselves or in conjunction with Defendant, one or more method claims of the '124 Patent.

Defendant knowingly and actively aided and abetted the direct infringement of the '124 Patent by instructing and encouraging its customers, purchasers, users, and developers to use the '124 Patent methods and technology. These instructions of encouragement include, but are not limited to, developing the website with '124 Patent methods knowing that customers would utilize such functionality in purchasing and or acquiring products from the website. By advertising and promoting use of the search functionality the Defendant promoted use of the '124 Patent technology and provided an avenue for third parties to use the '124 Patent technology for the Defendant's financial gain.

28.

Defendant updates and maintains an HTTP site that directly facilitates and encourages third parties to utilize the '124 Patented technology. Available at <https://www.oakley.com/en-us>.

29.

The Defendant has been and is currently committing these acts of infringement without a license or authorization from Plaintiffs, and such acts of infringement are likely to continue unless enjoined by the Court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for relief that the Court enter judgment in their favor and against Defendant, granting the relief as follows:

- A. That the Court enter judgment that one or more claims of the '124 Patent have been infringed either directly or indirectly and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by Defendant;
- B. That Defendant be ordered to pay damages adequate to compensate Plaintiffs for its acts of infringement, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- C. That Plaintiffs be awarded increased damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 due to Defendant's willful infringement of the '124 Patent;
- D. That the Court find that this case exceptional and award Plaintiffs reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285;
- E. That Defendant, its officers, agents, employees, and those acting in privity with it, be preliminarily enjoined from further infringement, contributory infringement, and/or inducing infringement of the patent-in-suit, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283;
- F. That Defendant, its officers, agents, employees, and those acting in privity with it, be permanently enjoined from further infringement, contributory infringement, and/or inducing infringement of the patent-in-suit, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283;

- G. That Defendant be ordered to pay prejudgment and post-judgment interest;
- H. That Defendant be ordered to pay all costs associated with this action; and
- I. That Plaintiffs be granted such other and additional relief as the Court deems just, equitable, and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b), Plaintiffs demand a jury trial on all issues justiciable by a jury.
